

Timothy Piazza Anti-Hazing Institutional Report

Under the Timothy Piazza Anti-Hazing Law, Lycoming College publishes an anti-hazing report on actual findings of Lycoming College’s community standards violations by organizations formally affiliated with the institution.

The report includes the organization's name, the date charges assessed, the actual charge, the date the case was resolved, a general description of the incident, findings, and sanctions placed on the organization. Please review the Student Code of Community Standards for additional information regarding Student Organization conduct processes.

Lycoming College will maintain this anti-hazing report for the past 5 years of all information concerning violations of the Timothy Piazza Anti-Hazing Law on the College’s website. This report will be updated twice yearly on January 1 and August 1.
